

SPEAKING COVID-19 IN 2021: A WORKSHOP FOR BICULTURAL WORKERS

Are you a Bicultural Worker? Are you finding the information about vaccines and the changing restrictions and advice confusing? Do you need to explain Covid safety and available supports to community members in simple ways and in their language?

Then this workshop is for you. Through individual and group activities, you will be able to discuss the terms and practices around everything Covid in 2021.

In the training, you will discuss updates, language and cultural understandings around:

- What is 'Covid Normal'?
- Update on vaccines
- Payments and other supports

The workshop is currently offered online. It is FREE and you will receive a certificate on completion.

To organise a workshop, contact Sophie Dutertre:
sophied@ceh.org.au